Kencugalu Mari Devaru was installed Guru of the Matha

under the name of "Chennaveerathe Sisnyas and Gurus of other Mathas and that the now Swami who is minor of 14 years is now under training in the Hunesammanahalli Matha in the Devanahalli Taluk.

2. No satisfactory explanation has been offered for not obtaining the previous sanction of Government to the succession, but in view of the small importance of the Matha and of the approval expressed by the Sisnyas and Gurus of the Mathas in adjoining places as evidenced by the Mahazar, I recommend that the succession of Mariadevara may be recognised.

Letter No.P.1411 of 22-23 dated 2nd May 1923, from the Deputy Commissioner, Pan ralore District, to the Muzrai Commissioner:--

"I have the honor to state that one Siadalinga Swami of Kambalu Mutt of Sompur Hobli of Nelamangala Taluk put in an application on 1st February 1923 stating that in view of his illness for the past 1½ months he had selected one of his disciples by name Kenchugalu Maridevaru, with the assent of the gurus of adjoining Mutts and the disciples of the Mutt to succeed him as Guru for the above Mutt and that the usual honors might be continued to this new Swami. The Amildar of Nelamangala Taluk to whom the petition was forwarded for report, states that the above mentioned Maridevaru, son of - Sartappa of Kenchugalu village, was installed as the new guru of the Mutt under the title of "Channaveera Swamigalu" on 1st February 1923 according to the usage of the Mutt before the assembly of its -- disciples and that the old Swami then died the same day at about 3 or 4 P.M. A mahazar drawn up goes to show that the Mutt properties were duly handed over to the possession of the new Swami. It is also reported that the new swamigalu was taken away for training by the Swami at Hunasamaranallu Mutt and that the agent of Mutt by name Nanjundappa continues to be the agent now also.

2. The vernacular file of connected records are submitted herewith for favour of reference."
